

Rugby Free Secondary School PSYCHOLOGY Curriculum Sequence Overview 2023-24

Year 12 Link to Year 11:

1. Students build on GCSE mathematics skills within research methods
2. Students build on knowledge of neurons and conducting practicals from GCSE science within research methods and biopsychology
3. Some students may have existing knowledge of some theories from health and social care and sociology GCSEs

Year 13 Link to Year 12:

1. Students build on their knowledge of approaches and all topics from year 12 through issues and debates which finishes with comparison of approaches
2. Students build on and hone their exam technique which started in year 12, particularly essay questions
3. Students build on their knowledge of evaluative and comparative skills in the year 13 optional topics, and particularly in issues and debates