SUBJECT Curriculum Roadmap

Describing types of stratification and inequality.

Evaluating the functionalist perspective. Evaluating Marxists on class.

Explaining life chances. Exploring the affluent worker and social mobility

Understanding poverty and relative deprivation in Britain today.

Examining the role of the 'underclass'.

Analysing the impact of globalisation.

Evaluating power: welfare state, social theory and political power, patriarchy.

Term 2b: Revise for and sit your Y11 mock exams: Paper 2

> Revise for and sit your Sociology GCSE Term 3a

Term 1a Crime and Deviance End of

Attend Sixth form Options Evening

Unit test

Term 1a: Continue Crime and Deviance

Term 3a and 3b Crime and Deviance:

Defining crime and deviance.

Analysing how to measure crime in society.

Explaining criminal and deviant behaviour.

Examining relative deprivation.

Analysing and evaluating the theoretical perspectives on crime. Examining factors and causes of crime: Age, gender, social class and

Understanding social control and measueres

Punishment and sentencing.

Term 2b and 3a: Continuing Eduction: Understanding how success and failure are

Unpicking the hidden curriculum.

Evaluating factors affecting educational success:

Examining the impact of policy on education.

Term 3b: Paper 1 Families and Education PPF

Term 1a: Houses of Parliament and Old Bailey Trip

Term 2a: Education: Describing the functions of schools applying Marxism and Functionalism. Analysing the different types of schools. Considering alternatives to school.

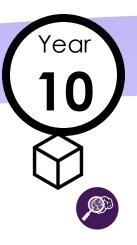

gender and social class.

Term 3a End of

Education Unit test

Term 1a and 1b: Families and Households: Describing types of family. Understanding family diversity today. Evaluating theoretical perspectives: Functionalism, Marxism, Feminism and New Right Analysing marriage – patterns and reasons. Analysing divorce – patterns and reasons. Explaining changing structures in modern society. Evaluating the change in conjugal roles with causes and impacts.

Term 1b: Families end of Unit Test

Term 3a and 3b: Research Methods: How to plan research. Understanding social facts and values Examining practical and ethical issues, Analysing primary vs se condary sources Describing research

Selecting sampling frames

Term 3a and 3b Introduction to Sociology:

Introducing concepts - social structures, processes and issues. Beginning to understand theories - Marxism, Functionalism and Feminism

Attend Options Evening for GCSEs

Curiosity

Resilience

Kindness

Respect

Collaboration

Endeavour